EXPERIENCE

CRAIG NEWMARK GRADUATE SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM AT CUNY

- RESEARCHER (CENTER FOR COMMUNITY MEDIA)   Jan. 2021 – Present

Developed a Python coding formula to scrape campaign finance expenditures for over 400 candidates in the 2021 NYC municipal elections. Created a Facebook social media campaign and post weekly content to connect candidates with our 300 partner publications.

- COLLEGE ASSISTANT   Aug. 2020 – Dec. 2020

Helped teach first-semester students in a Fundamentals of Data Journalism course. Assisted a class of 15 students during weekly office-hours with learning the basics of HTML, CSS, Excel, Datawrapper and data analysis software.

DATA/INVESTIGATIVE REPORTING INTERN

Pitched five criminal justice stories. Used Python coding to report and investigate 20 years of police civilian-shooting data in the Kansas and Missouri Metropolitan area. Filed 20 freedom-of-information requests for a piece on police use-of-force policies, which resulted in Overland Park Police changing its shooting-at-moving-vehicle policy.

NYCITY NEWS SERVICE   Aug. 2019 – Dec. 2020

REPORTER

Collaborated with ProPublica's Electionland team; wrote and reported a 500-word story about the Board of Elections issuing incorrect polling-place addresses to early voters. Produced, filmed and edited a two-minute news feature for 219West TV magazine profiling a vegetarian hunger-relief organization, Community Solidarity, Inc.

12UPSPORTS   Sept. 2017 – Jan. 2019

WRITER

Wrote a dozen 250-word blog articles per day, producing over 2,000 articles across all major United States sports leagues. This resulted in over 20 million clicks. Stories include an interview with veteran NFL head coach John Fox and his draft day experiences.
